Leonid I. Teyf, by and through counsel, hereby moves this Court to continue the hearing (ECF. Nos. 76, 77) on Mr. Teyf's Motion to Revoke or Amend the Magistrate's Detention Order from the currently scheduled January 7, 2019 to January 15, 2019 or a later date. In support of the motion Mr. Teyf shows as follows:

Lead counsel, James P. McLoughlin, Jr., will be in London, United Kingdom from January 5 until January 14, 2019. Lead counsel's travel was scheduled prior to filing the Motion to Revoke or the Court's scheduling of the hearing on the motion, and is in connection with preparation of the defense of a pending European Commission proceeding with short deadlines. The trip and meetings cannot be rescheduled. Mr. Teyf should have the opportunity to be represented by lead counsel at a hearing that may result in his continued incarceration pending trial.

Counsel for Mr. Teyf received discovery in government production #1 on December 26, 2018, which consisted of 19 compact discs with several thousand pages of documents, and numerous video and audio files containing hundreds of hours of recordings. The Bail Reform Act makes the strength of the Government's case a relevant factor and counsel continues to review the discovery in preparation for the hearing on Mr. Teyf's Motion to Revoke Pretrial Detention.

The Government objects to the hearing and, in turn, objects to Mr. Teyf's Motion for a Continuance. (App. 1). There is no prejudice whatsoever to the Government in any limited continuance of hearing on Mr. Teyf's Motion.

The interests of justice are served by allowing Mr. Teyf a continuance for his lead counsel to be present and to continue to review the Government's discovery.

Respectfully submitted January 3, 2018.
